

01 RIGID WALK

STIFF / V2

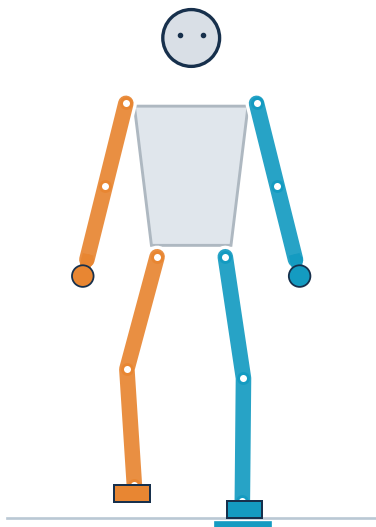

BLUE = anatomical L | ORANGE = anatomical R | Same 3D pose in both views | Solid bar = support foot

FRONT: facing viewer

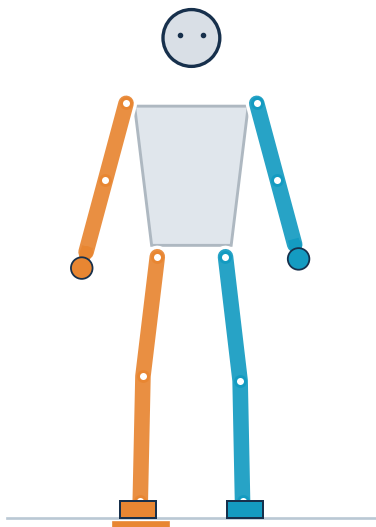

W0 | 00% | L contact

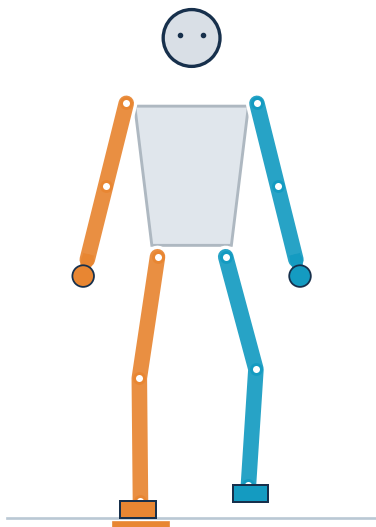

W1 | 25% | R passing

W2 | 50% | R contact

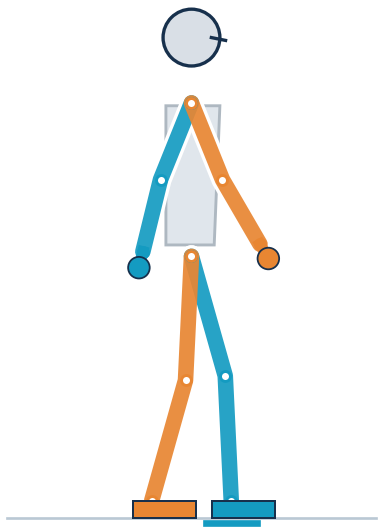

W3 | 75% | L passing

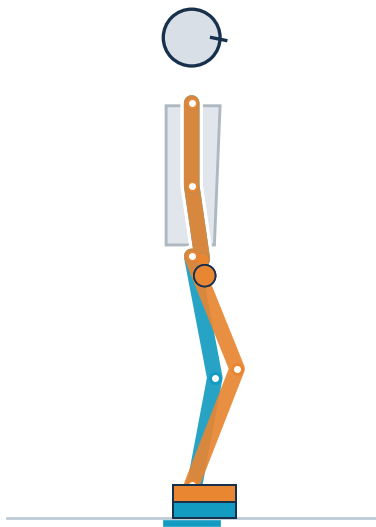

RIGHT SIDE: forward ->

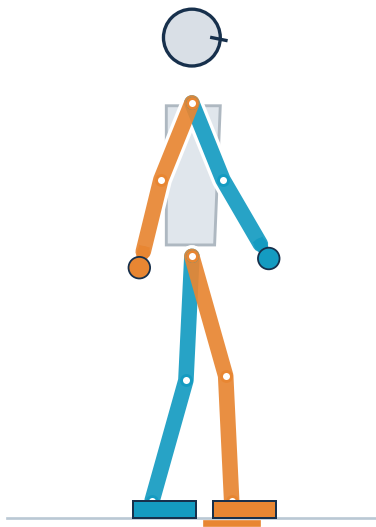

W0 | 00% | L contact

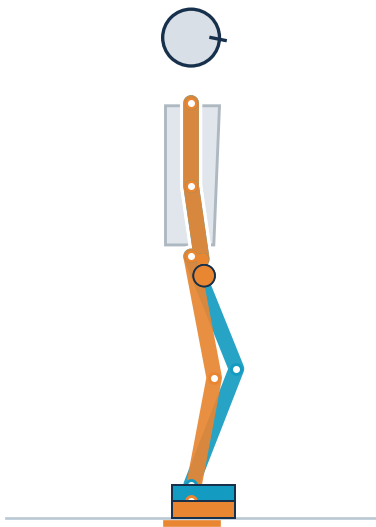

W1 | 25% | R passing

W2 | 50% | R contact

W3 | 75% | L passing

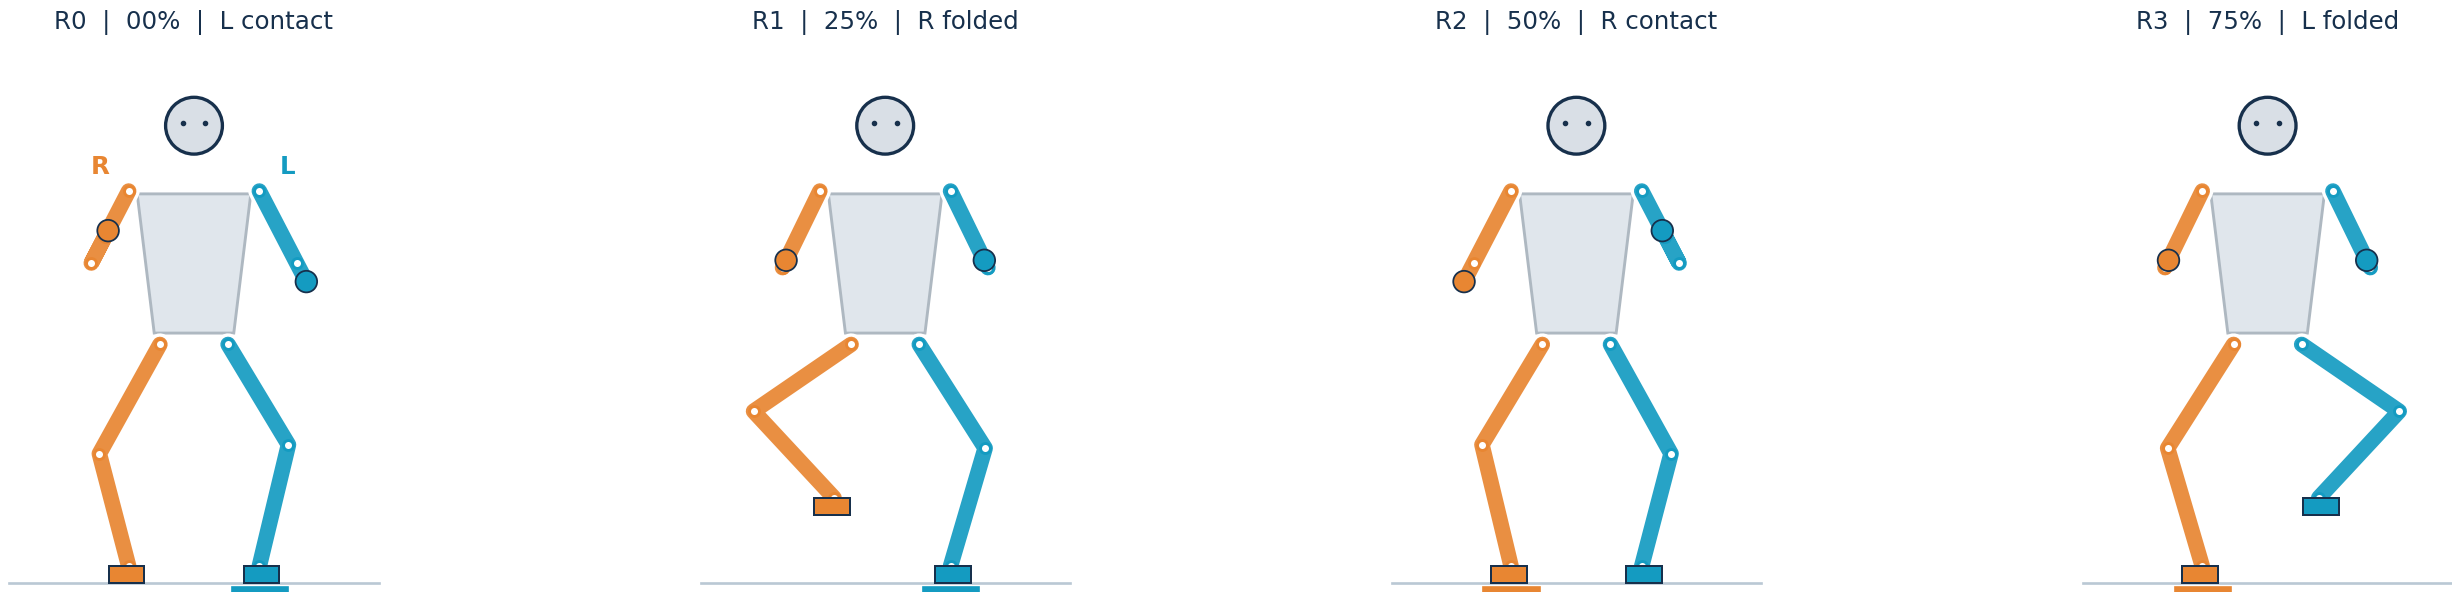

Rigid swing: elbow 8 deg, wrist fixed. Legs stay in separate lanes; no crossover or limp wrist.
Walk keys: 0 / 25 / 50 / 75%. Foot lift peaks at 5.5 cm above contact; mirror half a cycle.
Preview cycle 0.90 s only. In-game phase and stride must match actual movement speed.

02 SPLAYED FOLD RUN

STIFF / V2

BLUE = anatomical L | ORANGE = anatomical R | Same 3D pose in both views | Solid bar = support foot

FRONT: facing viewer

RIGHT SIDE: forward ->

User Fig. 6 direction: one grounded leg, opposite knee OUT and shin folded IN; no crossed feet.
Run uses a low, steady pelvis. Elbows stay at 95 deg; arms swing as rigid angled units.
Preview cycle 0.56 s only. This is a grounded cartoon run; existing jump remains unchanged.

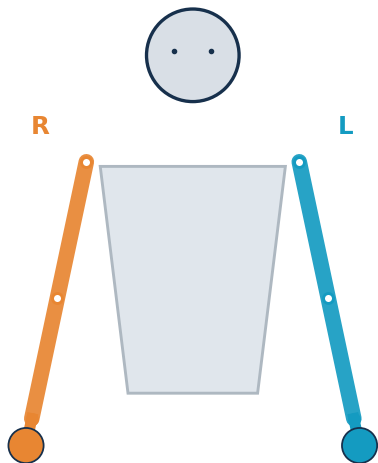

03 UNARMED UPPER BODY

STIFF / V2

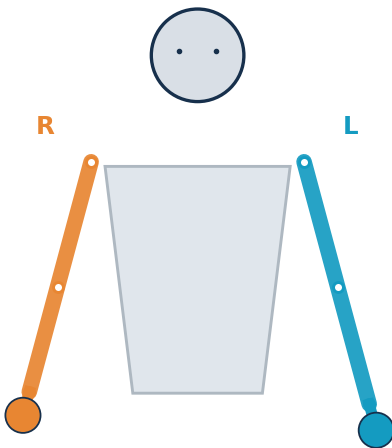

Three exact pose samples | Same joint coordinates in front and side | No wrist lag / no shoulder sway

FRONT

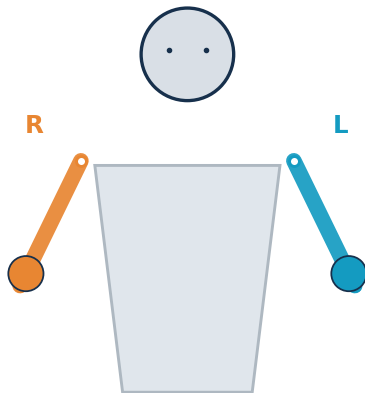

U0 IDLE

U1 WALK / L contact

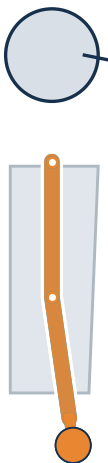

U2 RUN / R folded

RIGHT SIDE: forward ->

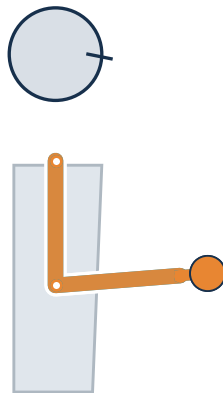

U0 IDLE

U1 WALK / L contact

U2 RUN / R folded

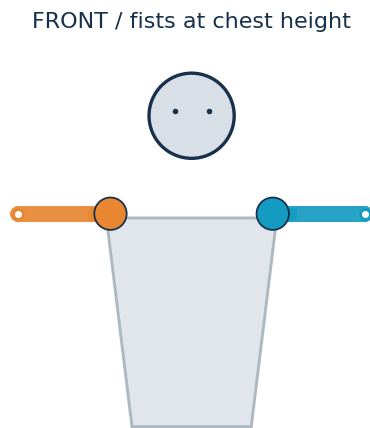

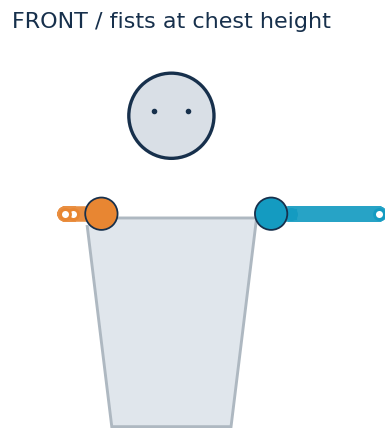

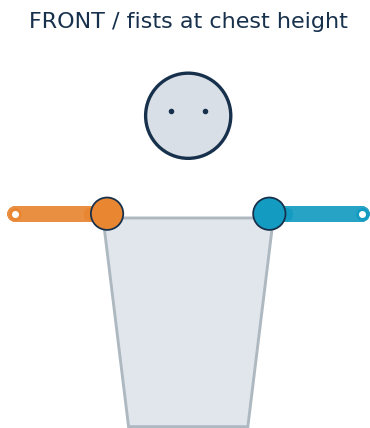

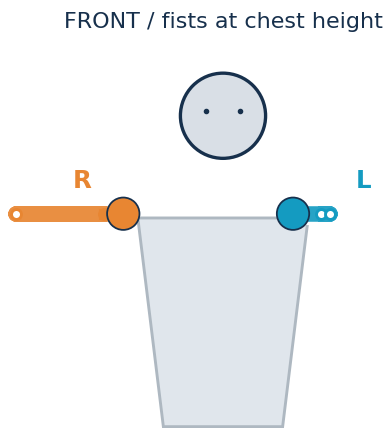

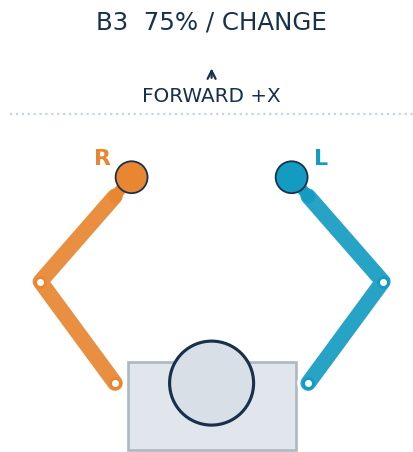

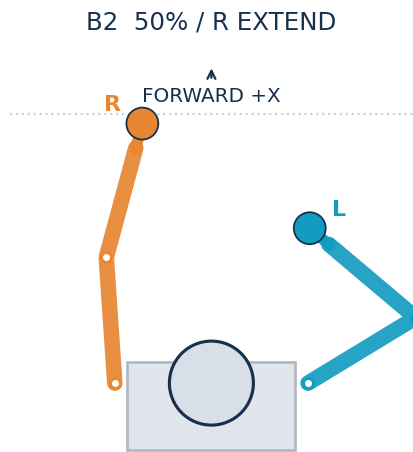

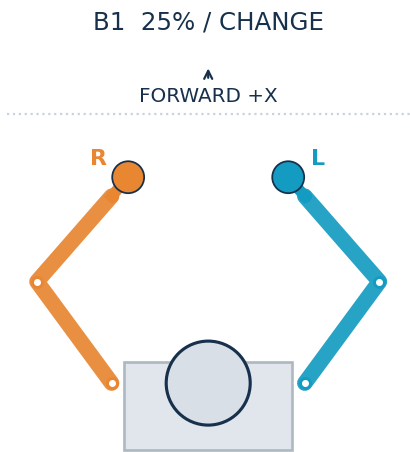

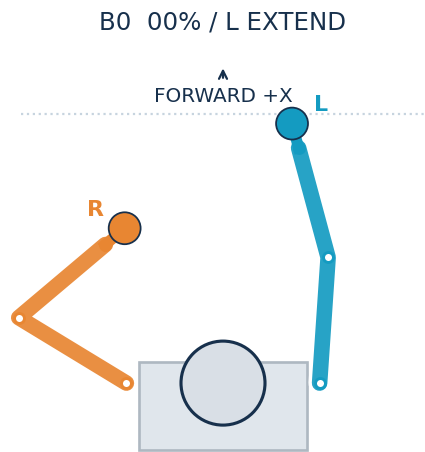

U0: arms off torso 12 deg; elbow 8 deg. Hands hang separately. Do not hold a permanent boxing guard.
U1: upper-arm swing +/-22 deg; elbow fixed 8 deg. U2: swing +/-20 deg; elbow fixed 95 deg.
These upper-body poses apply ONLY when unarmed. Preserve current equipped poses and grip constraints.

04 ALTERNATING PISTON PUNCH

STIFF / V2

User Fig. 5 interpreted as TOP VIEW | Forward punch, not overhead reach | Fixed torso; separate fist lanes

One arm extends as the other retracts. Elbows remain out; wrists fixed; no torso twist or boxing guard.
B0 and B2 are extension endpoints, not the entire damage window. Sweep the APPROACH path.
Preview loop 0.40 s = 2 strokes. Runtime timing and damage count follow existing legal attack cadence.
